- We started this trust in the memory of my son "Marwann" who died because of blood cancer in the age of 12.
- I am experienced, mature, and caring, commitment to social care.
- My experience is rooted in a rock solid background of working with young and vulnerable people from all backgrounds and differing life circumstance.
- Performing routine home visitations in the local communities, particularly to families with vulnerable young children and affected people, to ensure the care provided is sufficient and meets Health and safety standards.
- We hope on God's support for good health to contiune this service .
